WEDNESDAY, May 25. Oliver et ux. vs Powers. Trespass vi et armis, for throwing forty gallons of dirty water upon the person of the female plaintiff. Defence, that only 10 gallons were thrown, and that this was a necessary hydropathic treatment for female plaintiff was afflicted, to wit, calling the de. covered. fendant's wife a variety of names, indicating some relation between her and some of the ladies of ansient Habylon.

The investigation of the details of this case, has occupied the Court and Jury, and the learned Counset, since yesterday afternoon. It was concluded to-day. Verdict for Plaintiffs; damages one dollar.— Mr. Underwood and Mr. Peck for Plaintiffs ; Mr. Chittenden and Mr. Maynard for Defendant. Thompson v Prouty, the next and last Jury cause, was then heard; verdict for Defendant. Under ood and Hard for Plaintiff; Mr. Maynard and Mr. Edmunds for Defendant. The Jury was then discharged for the term. The Court will probably rise on Saturday.

This Court having occupied all the time allotte to it by law, adjourned on Saturday.

Although a great deal of business has been trans-seted, but little has been finally accomplished so as to diminish the number of cases on the docket, and he November Term will open with an accumulated view his cause, and thus have two full jury trials upon the same issue, makes it next to impossible to have an end to a cause, and makes the expenses of finigation entirely disproportionate, in most instances, to the importance or object of the suit.

Fugitive Slave Case in Boston. ATTEMPT AT RESCUE. BLOODSHED. MILITARY CALLED OUT.

Bosros, May 27th A tremendous meeting was held at Fancuil Hall, last night, to consider the subject of the arrest of a fugitive Slave here. Great excitement prevailed, in the midst of which an announcement was made that an attempt would be made to rescue the man, when a portion of the audience rushed to Court square. The crowd had scarcely reached the square when several men with axes and a stick of timber stove in the door on the west side opposite the office of the U.S. Marshall. They were resisted on the inside, when several guns or pistols were fired and one of the officers of the Marshal, James Batchelder a truckman was shot through the bowels, dying almost instantly. The bell upon the Court House was rung ; a large detachment of the police were brought together immediately, and a number of the rioters were arrested. The Mayor was sent for, and orders were issued to Col. Cowdin, for 2 companies of his regiment, who were forthwith detailed for duty in the preservation of the peace of the city. Meantime great excitement prevailed about the Court House. Missiles were hurled and some of the officers knocked down. Gradually the crowd disappeared at midnight, but a few people remained in the square. This morning the Court House is surrounded by a rast crowd of people, the inside being guarded by 100 U.S. troops and 2 companies of Artillery. The whole of the 1st regiment is also called out. The excitement

The Fugitive Slave Case.

Boston, June 1st.

The city is quiet to-day. The decision of the Commissioner is awaited with intense anxiety. It is generally supposed that the Commissioner will send him back. If such is the case he will be placed in the center of the U.S. troops, who will then march down to Central wharf where the revenue cutter Marris is prepared to receive him.

NOTICE.

THE PUBLIC STREETS IN BURLINGTON FOR some time past, have been occupied to some extent with cattle, horses, and swine, to the great annoyance of the public, and without law or right. The strents have also in many places been dag up, and the grass and turf taken and appropriated by individuals to their own use. Now, with a view to the correction of these cras, the Select Men deem it to be their duty to call the attention of these matters, in the full confidence that without further notice such evils will be speedily reformed.

The following is a copy of the Law in relation to pounds, earrays, &c., passed at the last session of the Legislature:

"See, lat. Any person who shall suffer any next "Cattle, Horses, Sheep or Hogs, to run at large in the public highway, except on his own premises, shall, for every such offence wilfully committed, for feit and pays fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than five dollars, to be recovered in an action founded on this statute—one half of the penalty to be paid into the town treasury of the town where said snims are found running at large, and the other half to the person who shall prosecute the same to effect.
